

City Mouse is a Los Angeles-based punk/alternative rock project led by Miski Dee, known for raw emotional songwriting and powerful live performances. Having toured extensively throughout North America, the UK, and Europe, City Mouse has built a devoted following through deeply personal songs exploring grief, resilience, and hope. Their latest full-length album, So Far Out (2024), marks a defining evolution in their sound and emotional depth.