

MISKI DEE

Miski Dee is a Los Angeles–based punk songwriter and performer best known as the founder of City Mouse. Her work is defined by raw emotional honesty, exploring themes of grief, resilience, and survival. Known for powerful, cathartic live performances, Miski has toured extensively throughout North America and Europe, building a devoted following through deeply personal songs that balance vulnerability with strength.